First Entrants File In Carson Teener Contest

First entrants in the Second Annual Carson Teen contest, sponsored by the Carson Chamber of Commerce, took to the field this past week, seeking votes that they hope will establish them as King and Queen of the carnival, scheduled for June 11, 12 and 13, general chairman Herb Blank announced.

First to file was Althea Steadham, 16-year-old brunette of 431 E. 237th St., Wilmington. She will seek the Queen crown and as well as giving one of their members a chance at the many valuable prizes.

At least a dozen more candidates are expected to file before the deadline of April 15, Blank predicted, adding that entrants may file applications at one of several places throughout the area.

Requirements For Entry
All contestants must be unmarried and between the ages of 15 and 20 years old. King and Queen will be decided on number of votes cast for them by supporters. Report meetings and standing of contestants will be announced weekly throughout the contest until its close on June 4.

Members of the Board of Directors of the Carson Chamber of Commerce will join committee chairmen in tallying the ballots and will name the winner on June 8.

In addition to a $100 wardrobe first prize, each of the contestants will have an opportunity to qualify for photo flash cameras, sweaters, bathing suits, portable radios, record players or watches.

Tickets to be distributed by the contestants will give supporters an opportunity to win a new automobile.

All funds derived from the carnival and contest will be used by the Chamber in the promotion of youth activities in the Carson area. Last year's inaugural event netted more than $1000 for such work, Desmond said.

Herald Employee Joins Air Force

Donald S. Gibson of 22702 1/2 Hawthorne Ave., a member of the staff of the Torrance Herald, recently enlisted in the United States Air Force. Gibson had been associated with the Circulation Department.

Gibson first became interested in the Air Force through a news release published in this newspaper. He visited the San Pedro Army & Air Force Recruiting Station and after examining all the potential training and schooling advantages of an Air Force enlistment, made his decision.

He is now at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio where he is taking his basic training prior to departure to an Air Force Service School.

We Need Finch, High Republican Official Says

"We need men like Bob Finch in the U.S. Congress," Under Secretary of Commerce Walter Williams told a large gathering of Republican Associates this week at the Los Angeles Biltmore Hotel.

Williams, former national head of the Citizens for Eisenhower, spoke on the benefits all the American people have gained from the strengthening of government processes under the leadership of President Eisenhower. He stressed the reduction of taxes, development of a sound foreign policy, and the buildings of a sound basis for the domestic economy.

Williams' statement about Finch, candidate for Congress in the 17th District, came as he discussed the Eisenhower Administration's firm resolve to render further and still better service to all Americans.

"President Eisenhower's legislative program can be adopted only if we have men like Bob Finch in Congress to fight for it," Williams said.

Union Leaders Support Isen In Council Bid

The Voters Committee for Albert Isen for City Councilman has announced that Isen had received the unanimous and only endorsements of the Los Angeles Greater C.I.O. Council and affiliated unions, including the San Pedro Typographical Union, and the A. F. of L. Labor Council and affiliated unions, for City Council in the election of April 13, 1954.

The endorsements are unique in that Isen is a practicing attorney and is not a union member. Albert T. Lunceford, Secretary of the Los Angeles Greater C.I.O. Council, and Cecil Johnson, Secretary of the A. F. of L. Labor Council, both stated that the qualifications of a candidate for a job to be done and his record for ability and fairness are of more consequence than the possession of a union card.

They further stated that it was the opinion of all the affiliated unions that Isen is the best qualified candidate for the office of City Council of Torrance.
